ON A WIFE BEAUTIFYING HERSELF FOR HER HUSBAND BY WEARING JEANS¹

Question:

Is it permissible for the wife to beautify herself for her husband by wearing clothes which are popular among the kuffaar like jeans and the likes?

Answer:

Jeans are not particular to the kuffaar and it is not possible to say that it is permissible for a man to look at his wife naked but it is haraam for him to look at her while she is wearing jeans!?"Wearing jeans for the woman is haraam (to look at) but if she removes the jeans it is halaal to look at her"! It is not possible to say this! So it is allowed (for the wife to beautify herself for her husband by wearing jeans) due to less than it being allowed, and you should know that tashabbuh (resembling the kuffaar) is in regards to what it practiced in the society, so as for a woman wearing her husband's shoes to just use the toilet or the woman wearing her husband's jacket indoors because she's cold or when she's sitting to read the book of Allaah for example - then this is not resembling men. But if she was to wear the coat of her husband and then go out in the street with it then this resembles men and Allaah knows best.
